1 How long will it be till my labor is done And my four legs in 2 How long will it be till the shadows are past And eternity's 3 Oh I know not the hour that will bring the great change From this world to the time shall be over? How long till the joy of the best shall be won In the morning shall dawn? How long till I share heaven's freedom and peace With the far spirit in land But I long to serve Jesus while here I abide And be
