3. Oh, I know not the hour that will bring the great change From this world to the time shall be o'er? How long till the joy of the blest shall be won, In the morning shall dawn? How long till I share heaven's freedom and peace, With the far spir-it land, But I long to serve Je-sus while here I a-bide, And be home on the heav-en-ly shore? sor-row and pain of earth gone? How long will it be till I hear the sweet voice led by His un-err-ing hand.

Of the Lord call-ing me from be-low,
from be-low,
To the cit-y on high,

where the rap-ture and rest Of the saved I for-ev-er shall know?
for-ev-er shall know?
